

Cammarata & Cammarata, P.L., Special Education Law invites you to a

FREE DISABILITY WORKSHOP FOR FAMILIES OF SPECIAL NEEDS STUDENTS/ADULTS

This is the one workshop you do not want to miss.

When? Saturday, February 4, 2012 @ 10:00AM

Where? Pompano Beach Civic Center, 1801 NE 6th Street

Space is limited - Please Register by sending email to Virginia at info@cammlaw.com with the name of all individuals attending or call (954) 802-8423. Please bring a bag lunch.

Tentative Schedule

- | | |
|--------------------|--------------------------------------|
| - 10:00-10:05 am | Introductions |
| - 10:05-11:00 am | Guardianships |
| - 11:00-12:00 pm | Special Education Advocacy |
| - 12:00-12:30 pm | Lunch - Video "Assistive" Technology |
| - 12:30 - 12:45 pm | Special Education Advocacy Follow Up |
| - 12:45- 1:30 pm | Crime in School |
| - 1:30-2:15 pm | Beyond discrete Trials |
| - 2:15 - 3:15 pm | Special Needs Trust |

Coming of AGE: what every parent needs to know

Guardianships

Jean Costa, Esq., Ass't Regional Counsel for Department of Children and Families (DCF),

An introduction to Special Needs Trusts: why you might want one and how to know you have a valid one

Stephanie L. Langer, Esq., Law Offices of Matthew W. Dietz, P.L.

Crime in School: when can your child be arrested in school and how to respond if it happens.

Stephanie L. Langer, Esq., Law Offices of Matthew W. Dietz, P.L.

What legal rights does a student with an IEP have? How can parents effectively advocate on their behalf.

Maria Cammarata, Esq. Cammarata & Cammarata, P.L.

Beyond Discrete Trials: The Applied Behavior Analysis Approach-- Treatment for All.

Renee Saulnier, M.S., BCBA Reveresco ABA THERAPY

Resource Tables and Much more...